Modern Wombourne (c. 1960) was a village of 3000 people that expanded to 6,000 with the arrival of two council estates and private housing. The massive Poolhouse estate was built in the 1970's as a housing-only development

The infrastructure, save for the building of Sainbury's supermarket, is the same now since the 1960's-70's. The schools are the same with a few new buildings tacked on. A doctor at the Dale Medical Centre has already complained to the parish council that they are at capacity, despite what the CCG says. Most residents of Wombourne will site the very poor services that we have access to.

Saying that extra busses will be timetabled is no answer to the congestion. The already circuitous route taken by the
