Dear Sir or Madam,

I wish to register my objection to the Local Plan Consultation.

Amongst other concerns is the legal basis of the consultation process which seems to have been made deliberately confusing, difficult to get involved in and residents are certainly not aware of the intricacies of it. I believe the consultation would not stand up in court because it simply has not been made available to the public who will be affected, in a coherent and understandable manner for them to make a proportionate judgement based on it.

Wombourne cannot sustain further housing; the infrastructure is not able to sustain the pressures already made on it let alone when further houses are built.

Please also note that I fully support the approach of Wombourne Parish Council.

Yours sincerely,
Simon Keeling
