

5658

Comment

Document Element: Table 1: Stages of Plan-making

Respondent: Mr David Blackadder-Weinstein

Date received: 18/05/2024 via Web

Summary:

I am concerned that the political nature of when the last version of the plan was stalled, i.e. just before the May 23 local elections, could set the district up for future conflict with central government or wider regional bodies like the West Midlands Combined Authority which may be making significant changes to the planking system while controlled by a different political party from that which leads and controls South Staffordshire

Full text:

I am concerned that the political nature of when the last version of the plan was stalled, i.e. just before the May 23 local elections, could set the district up for future conflict with central government or wider regional bodies like the West Midlands Combined Authority which may be making significant changes to the planking system while controlled by a different political party from that which leads and controls South Staffordshire

Change suggested by respondent:

-

Legally compliant: Not specified

Sound: Not specified

Comply with duty: Not specified

Attachments: None