8. If you wish to participate in the hearing session(s), please outline why you consider this to be necessary:

I have been a resident of South Staffordshire since 1992 and have spent the last 25 years as a homeowner in Bishop's Wood.

I am writing to express my support for the South Staffordshire Local Plan as I believe that it gives the best access to affordable, accessible housing supported by suitable infrastructure whilst, importantly, only releasing a tiny percentage of Greenbelt land for development.

I am a keen birdwatcher and enjoy running and walking in the rural location of Bishop's Wood. I am keen to protect our natural surrounding and am pleased that the plan positively considers the environmental impact of any new development. I am strongly opposed to development on greenfield sites when there are more suitable brownfield sites both within our county and beyond and believe that the plan would give a clear direction through until 2041.
